A Message from the President:

Hello again fellow fly flingers,

I am sitting on a tugboat on the Columbia River with water all around me and no fishing equipment at all. How sad is that? When I left Coos Bay, my understanding was that I was delivering a boat to the Columbia River and then returning home. However, by the time I got up here, I was part of the new crew and so, I am still aboard. Sort of getting channel fever having been on board a boat since the 3rd of September. I am not certain when I will get off to come home but, I am not planning on being able to attend this month's meeting. Take it easy on my buddy, John.

Having missed most of the fall salmon run on our local bay, I guess, my next fishing opportunity will be winter steelhead. I still need one of you to come up with an offer to teach me how to fish, successfully, for these fish. Thinking about it, I guess, the fall runs of salmon on the Sixes and Elk Rivers are yet to come. So,...someone can step up to show me how to go after those as well. WOW!! I guess my prospects for fishing in the near future may not be so gloomy after all!! If I can't shame someone into taking me fishing, I guess, I will just spend my spare time cleaning fly lines, tying flies and pining away the hours, dreaming about fish I have battled in the past.

Tight lines,

Poor Russ, the Whiner

P.S.: Reminder!! No name pin, no blue ticket. If you don't have one yet, just write your name on a piece of paper and slap it on your shirt front.

Slim Pickens was here and took everything!!!

(but the fish)
